ROCKS

June 12 - The farmers are harvesting the best hay crop they have had in many years.

Sunday is Father's Day. Don't forget it.

The Friendship Circle had their June meeting with Mrs. Phyllis Richardson.

A number of parents attended the Class Day Program at A. C. H. S. on Monday morning.

Billie Jean Baldwin entered Lynchburg General Hospital on Wednesday night. A speedy recovery is wished her. She returned home on Thursday.

The farmers are having quite a time with cut worms cutting their tobacco plants off.

Glenn McIntosh fell from a scaffold Friday. He was bruised very badly but no bones broken.

Congratulations to the following who were winners in the 4-H Dog Show held on Tuesday at Appomattox. Luann Crain, and Donna Dickerson were from the Rocks area.

Congratulations to these who were piano and organ students of Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan at a concert on June 5, 6, and 7. Pattie Roach, Amy Morris, Susan Morris, Billy and Ken Caldwell, Donna Dickerson and Kristie Craft.

Congratulations to all the graduates on Friday night. Those from here were Ronnie Richardson, Ricky Guill and Sarah Hamlin. Ronnie received a scholarship and award for 50.00. He plans to enter VPI in the fall. He was president of his class.

Rev. A. M. Taylor came back from South Carolina to bring his son, Jim and family Friday night. He returned to South Carolina on Saturday. Sorry to hear the former's grand daughter is still in critical condition. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor and children Scottie and Joey left for their home Davenport, Iowa.

A number from here attended the Patchwork Festival at Appomattox over the week end.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Christine Ransom in the death of her sister over the week end.

Mike and Ronnie Richardson will leave Tuesday for VPI for a few days.
